

Charmaine Gatlin

100 Black Men of America, Inc. Bio

Title: Vice President of Events and Programs

A native from Riceboro, GA who majored in French and played on the women's basketball team at the University of Florida, Charmaine has gained her expertise in variety of areas. Charmaine brings 10 years of expertise and proven success in operations, logistical coordination and event management in both the public and private sectors to this assignment.

Ms. Gatlin will be responsible for organizing logistical details of events and meetings, establishing and implementing organizational strategies and program development initiatives throughout the 100's worldwide network of 106 chapter organizations.

Most recently Charmaine served as executive director for the Nat Moore Foundation in Miami, Florida, as well as the coordinator of the Super Bowl and Pro Bowl Youth Clinics. Prior to that, Charmaine held the position of Events Manager with the Orange Bowl Committee where she managed a 700 member volunteer program and was responsible for over 40 events annually.

Interests

- Traveling
- Playing Basketball
- Coordinating events

Office: (404) 688-5100

Email address: Charmaine.gatlin@100bmoa.org