

M. Carol Stewart

100 Black Men of America, Inc. Bio

Title: Manager, Office Operations

M. Carol Stewart, Manager, Office Operations, 100 Black Men of America, Inc., is a high impact manager skilled in ensuring high employee morale, increased productivity, improving lines of communication and establishing accountability for service rendered. She has a career that has been marked by progressive growth and increasing accountabilities.

Carol is responsible for securing travel arrangements for 100 Black Men of America, Inc., which includes booking air travel for the executive committee, national office staff, conference travel and chapter travel. Executive committee ground transportation, conference office coordination, office supply management, building security and maintenance and vendor relations.

Carol's interests are reading, volunteering at her son's school, cooking, traveling and working out.

Work Telephone Number – 404-688-5100

E-mail: carol.stewart@100bmoa.org